DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to because the lines are not uniformly thick and well defined. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the copy provided is a poor, barely legible copy. A clear copy of the specification must be provided. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 2, 9, 19, 20, 22, 24 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Greenwood (U.S. Patent 3,808,757).

Greenwood discloses a deck support having a prefabricated movable member (44) engagable with a corresponding elongated member (42). There is an extension (56, 38) arranged to directly support the deck (Figure 1, for example).

There is a pivotable foot (52).

The method of erecting is deemed to be met.

There are prefabricated handrails (60, 62, 64, 66).

There are folded deck segments (24).

Claims 2, 19-22, 24 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gordon (U.S. Patent 5,740,575).

Gordon discloses a deck support having a prefabricated movable member (73) engageable with a corresponding elongated member (60, 62). There is an extension (70, 72) arranged to directly support the deck (Figure 1, for example).

The method of erecting is deemed to be met.

There are folded deck segments (22, 24, 30).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Greenwood or Gordon, as applied above.

The method is deemed to be met by both of these references. Further, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used the method as claimed in order to obtain the structures shown in Greenwood and Gordon.

Claims 17 and 18 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Greenwood or Gordon as applied above, and further in view of Richardson (U.S. Patent 3,788,016).

It is well known to include a roof with a deck structure in order to provide shelter to the deck, as exemplified by Richardson. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used the roof of Richardson with the decks of Greenwood or Gordon in order to shelter the deck of Greenwood or Gordon.

Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Greenwood or Gordon as applied above, and further in view of Shomaker (U.S. Patent 6,701,563).

Shomaker teaches the claimed angle to be beneficial in increasing deck strength. For this reason, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used the claimed angles with Greenwood or Gordon.
